

AHA Ninkasi Award

This award is named for the Sumerian Goddess of beer and is given to the winningest brewer based on points earned in the Final Round of the National Homebrew Competition. Brewers earn points toward the award by placing in the 23 beer categories, three mead categories and two cider categories. To be eligible for the award, brewers must have at least one entry place in the 23 beer categories. Gold medals earn six points, silver medals earn four points and bronze medals earn two points.
